I, Matilda Craig, of Allegheny City, Pennsylvania, widow of Joseph Craig, deceased, do make this my last will, hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made by me.

FIRST:- I appoint my sons Edwin S. Craig and Joseph W. Craig, as Executors of this will.

SECOND:- I do give and bequeath to my said Executors all, or so much of, my books, pictures, ornaments, furniture, bedding and other household goods, as they may deem proper to divide among my children, such division to be entirely under the control, and at the discretion, of my said Executors.

THIRD:- I do give and devise to my said Executors all my real estate; and, whenever it may be advisable in their judgment, I direct them to sell said real estate, at public or private sale, in whole or in parts, and at such price and time and upon such terms as they may deem best, and to execute and deliver the necessary deed or deeds of conveyance therefor, freed from all necessity on the part of the purchasers of seeing to the proper application of the purchase money.

FOURTH: The proceeds of said sale or sales, together with the proceeds of the sale of all my personal property not otherwise bequeathed, subject however to the payment of my just debts, funeral expenses and the cost of a suitable memorial stone at my grave, shall be divided into eight equal portions, and I do hereby bequeath to each one of my following named children, Mrs. Mary E. Brace, Edwin S. Craig, Joseph W. Craig, Mrs. Daisy S. Heck, George L. Craig, Percy B. Craig and Pressly T. Craig, one of said equal portions.

Wm. W. Mitchell, 67 Pa. 473,
Banking & Finance, 159 Pa. 510,
Phillips' Appeal, 93 Pa. 445.

FIFTH:- I do hereby bequeath the remaining one equal portion of said proceeds to my sons, Edwin S. Craig and Joseph W. Craig as Trustees, and to their successors in the trust, who shall take possession and control of the same, and invest it in such manner as they may deem best, and shall use and apply the interest or profits thereof, or so much as may be in their judgment needful, and if necessary so much of the principal fund as they may deem appropriate, in the comfortable support and maintenance of my son, William J. Craig, during his natural life, with the right in said trustees to pay, from time to time, such portions of said fund or moneys so to be applied, as they may deem consistent with their duty hereunder, directly into the hands of my said son William, it being expressly understood that said fund and all moneys in the hands or under the control of said trustees are not to be chargeable at any time with any of the present or future debts of my said son William, or to be liable in any manner for debts contracted by him, and all payments and disbursements to him or on his behalf, under this will, shall at all times be at the sole and absolute discretion of said trustees; and after the death of my said son William and the payment of his necessary funeral expenses and the cost of a suitable memorial stone at his grave, the said trustees shall divide the remainder, if any there be, of said trust fund, to and among such persons and in such proportions as my said son William may by his last will appoint, and in default of such appointment, then to and among the issue of my said son William, and if he leave no issue surviving him, then to and among my issue; in both cases wherein the limitation is to issue, his widow, if he leave one, is to participate in the distribution which is to be made in similar manner to the principles of the intestate laws of Pennsylvania. Wherever I have used the word "trustees" in this section of my will I desire it to extend to and include the successors of my said sons Edwin S. Craig and Joseph W. Craig.

SIXTH:- I request the Orphans Court of Allegheny County Pennsylvania, to fill all vacancies which may occur by death, resignation or otherwise in the offices of Executor and Trustee under this will, giving preference, during their lives, to my sons George L. Craig, Percy L. Craig and Pressly T. Craig, in the order named, and requiring no bonds from any of my sons for the faithful performance of any duties under this will.

WITNESS my hand this 8th day of September, A. D. 1893.

(Signed) Matilda Craig.
